TESTIMONIALS

As we were resuming back to office, we wanted to welcome our employees with some goodies and that's when we connected with Pinkmoon. They made sure all our gifts were delivered on time and most importantly 100% quality verified products.

We often get services from Pinkmoon and their commitment to delivery and quality is remarkable. Each time there is a different event, I get thoughtful suggestions and will definitely recommend them to many.

We approached Team Pinkmoon for our monthly employee recognition event and they had provided a very efficient and hassle free service even within a short time period. Thanks for the prompt response and on time delivery. Keep going!
